

Teen & Adult Reading Log

Mark one shape on the path for each 20 minutes spent reading. See if you can make it to the finish line! Activities suggested below may be substituted for reading minutes and may be done more than once. Each activity completed counts towards 20 minutes spent reading.

TEEN ACTIVITIES

Attend an online library program.

Write your own fairy tale, fable or a fan-fiction version of a classic fairy tale.

Illustrate your fairy tale or fable.

Go for a walk in your neighborhood or a local park. Look for wildlife.

Create a drawing or journal entry about your experience.

Write a poem about 2020.

Write a poem about Summer.

Draw a character from a book you've read.

Make a recipe or craft from something you read.

Take a selfie with your book shelf or your favorite book.

Write a book review or a comic review.

Write an encouraging email or snail mail letter to a friend, a relative, or someone you admire.

Can't think of who write to? Send it to the library!

Our staff would love to hear from you.

ADULT ACTIVITIES

Attend an online library program.

Make a craft from a book you have read.

Post a book review on social media.

Make a recipe from a book you have read.

Take a walk in your local park, on your block or in your own back yard.

Draw a character from a book you've read.

Make a mix-tape of your life! Create a list of songs that describe the important stuff in your world, post on social media, or use the mail to share it with friends and loved ones.

Follow Tacoma Public Library on social media.

Try a Tacoma Public Library database or eResource. Visit tacomalibrary.org/resource for a full list.

Make a healthy snack and have an indoor or backyard picnic.

tacoma public library

For all Summer Reading Club events and information, visit: tacomalibrary.org/summer-reading-club-2020

Any questions? Just ask! info@tacomalibrary.org

tacomalibrary.org
253.292.2001

Name: _____