I Have a Little Heart

I have a little heart, (place hand over heart)
And it goes thump, thump, thump (pat chest three times)
It keeps right on beating, when I jump, jump, jump (jump three times)
I get a special feeling, when I look at you. (point to group)
It makes me want to give you a hug or two. (hug yourself)

Skinnamarink-y-doo
I love you.

Heart-Shaped French Toast

This easy, heart-shaped French toast recipe for kids makes a perfect Valentine's Day breakfast or brunch!

Kids can help: Stir egg mixture, dip bread and cut hearts.

+ Bread
+ Egg
+ Skim milk
+ Maple Syrup
+ Strawberries

Beat an egg, using a fork, in a medium, low bowl.
Add about ¾ cup milk per each egg used.
Add a teaspoon of maple syrup and stir well.
Using a heart-shaped cookie cutter, cut out heart shapes from the center of bread slices.
Dip all bread pieces into egg mixture and set onto pancake griddle or large skillet set on medium heat.
Brown lightly on both sides.
Garnish with cut strawberries and maple syrup.
Love Goggles

Materials:
4 Pipe cleaners and scissors

1. Take one pipe cleaner and fold it into a “V”
2. Bend the ends and twist together into a heart shape
3. Repeat with another pipe cleaner to make 2 hearts
4. Cut an inch piece of pipe cleaner
5. Use that small piece to wrap around both hearts, connecting them
6. Cut another pipe cleaner in half
7. Take one half and twist the end to one side of the outside of the joined hearts
8. Take the other half and do the same on the other side of the other paired hearts
9. Bend the ends to make temple tips so they stay on your ears
