Media Advisory: EPL kicks off summer with the Esks New partnership will bring players and cheer team members to library locations throughout the summer

EDMONTON, AB, June 27, 2018 – Join the Edmonton Eskimos Cheer Team for a special storytime to celebrate the 2018 edition of Summer Starts at EPL.

The Edmonton Public Library's (EPL) popular summer reading club is back to encourage kids of all ages to read, create and explore all summer. Research confirms that children who read throughout the summer return to school better prepared – we also want kids to be enthusiastic about reading for fun. Summer Starts at EPL offers children the opportunity to participate in everything from Coding for Kids to Slime(y) Science and more.

Our new partnership with the Edmonton Eskimos Football Club completes our lineup of summer programming, and will include appearances by players and cheer team members at library programs across the city in July and August.

Join us for Edmonton Eskimos Cheer Team Storytime, and to learn more about upcoming programs as well as incredible prizes up for grabs.
