Discover the Stanley A. Milner Library!

WELCOME TO THE STANLEY A. MILNER LIBRARY!

Enjoy the amazing transformation of this timeless public building in the heart of downtown — a free space open to all.

Don't miss key features like our Shelley Milner Children's Library including an indoor play area and a children's makerspace. Plus, a 10,000 square foot makerspace for grown-ups, our multi-storey interactive simulation wall, Indigenous gathering space, and so much more.

Enjoy the endless possibilities to learn, create, be and work.

FEATURES

PLAY & LEARN

Check out the Shelley Milner's Children Library with a makerspace, gaming space, a BIG floor piano and more on the first floor. This is a kid's paradise! A place where kids can tinker, play and learn. Plus drop by our Gamerspace on the second floor for the kids at heart, and check out the multiple gaming platforms with a wide selection of games for novice and expert gamers alike.

CREATE & EXPERIMENT

Spend some time creating, making and experimenting on the second floor. Access new leading-edge technologies at the Makerspace and Fab Lab. Plus take a look at our sound and video production suites!

ART & CULTURE

Take in an event at the Muttart Theatre on the lower floor. Plus, check out Capital City Artwork—from local artists at the Gallery at Milner on the main and second floors and our community art galleries throughout the library.

JUST BE

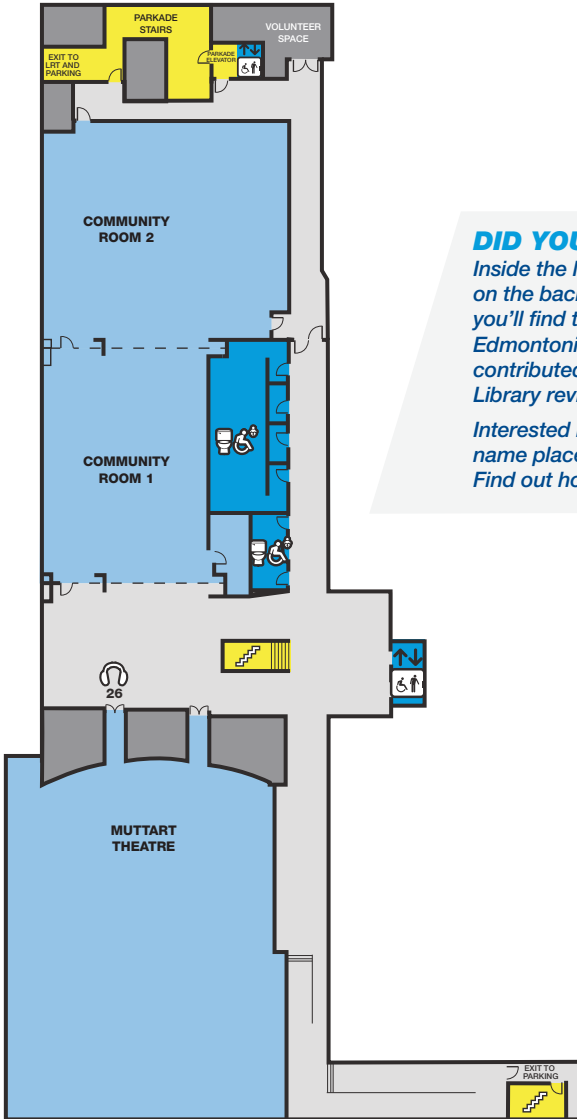

The Wall on the first floor is a must-see! A multi-storey digital wall, facilitating hands-on, interactive learning as well as large-scale multimedia presentations. If you're looking for a relaxing spot to just take in the stunning view, come to the Civic Corner with its large skylights on the third floor!

TAKE A SELF-GUIDED TOUR

Learn about the Milner Library as you listen to EPL staff guide you through the spaces. Reference the maps and headphone icons with numbers in this guide to explore at your own pace. Download the recorded tour at epl.ca/HelloMilner.
