Dear Community,

Thank you for choosing San Mateo County Libraries. We are happy to announce our new virtual blog, "Our Staff Picks," for updates on new events, resources, and services.

Our Staff Picks titles are available digitally through smcl.org. You can checkouts from plsinfo.org continue to receive messages related to your library account, including holds and book reminders. You can also join our virtual library book clubs and register in advance for our upcoming events.

For election-related events, don't forget to mark your calendars for our non-partisan Pro/Con Ballot Measure Forum with the League of Women Voters on Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 6:00 PM. This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates, helpful community resources, like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates and helpful community resources like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

Sanchez Atherton Libraries
San Mateo County Libraries
Open for Exploration

Dear Community,

Thank you for choosing San Mateo County Libraries. We are happy to announce our new virtual blog, "Our Staff Picks," for updates on new events, resources, and services.

Our Staff Picks titles are available digitally through smcl.org. You can checkouts from plsinfo.org continue to receive messages related to your library account, including holds and book reminders. You can also join our virtual library book clubs and register in advance for our upcoming events.

For election-related events, don't forget to mark your calendars for our non-partisan Pro/Con Ballot Measure Forum with the League of Women Voters on Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 6:00 PM. This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates, helpful community resources, like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates and helpful community resources like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

Sanchez Atherton Libraries
San Mateo County Libraries
Open for Exploration

Staff Picks

Dear Community,

Thank you for choosing San Mateo County Libraries. We are happy to announce our new virtual blog, "Our Staff Picks," for updates on new events, resources, and services.

Our Staff Picks titles are available digitally through smcl.org. You can checkouts from plsinfo.org continue to receive messages related to your library account, including holds and book reminders. You can also join our virtual library book clubs and register in advance for our upcoming events.

For election-related events, don't forget to mark your calendars for our non-partisan Pro/Con Ballot Measure Forum with the League of Women Voters on Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 6:00 PM. This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates, helpful community resources, like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

This one-stop shop for election information includes important dates and helpful community resources like how to check your voter registration status, how to track your ballot, nonpartisan voter guides, and so much more. Visit smcl.org/election-resource-center.

Sanchez Atherton Libraries
San Mateo County Libraries
Open for Exploration