Dear Community,

Our Winter Challenge for all ages launched this Monday! Join us on a winter adventure by reading books, exploring new activities, and attending events. For updates on new events, visit our eNewsletter page.

The Winter Challenge is for adults, too. Adults are invited to read new books and attend events, then this is the book for you. The first book is "The Catcher in the Rye" by J.D. Salinger. This book explores human emotion and society from the perspective of a teenage boy. It will be discussed on Monday, Dec. 21 at 7:30 PM.

Open for Exploration

Explore our virtual programs and events through
Curbside Services, 3D Printing for Beginners, and Virtual Library Programs! You might also be interested in the virtual programs behind The Fratello Marionettes and Employment Development Department.

Explore More

Find Your Next Career

Join us for some holiday magic through music! Enjoy a week of puppet fun with The Fratello Marionettes. You can sign up for a week of Free@Home Marionettes! Bring Puppets to Life With The Fratello Marionettes. Together, we will explore how to create and bring a puppet to life.

Community Picks

Children's Fiction: "The Winter Challenge" by Robb. This winter, the community will embark on a journey of discovery and growth. Join us in the adventure of reading together. The Winter Challenge will take place from December 21 to January 4, 2021. It will include a variety of activities designed to help participants explore the world of winter through reading and creative expression.

Adult Fiction: "Murder Wears Mittens" by Sally Goldenbaum. Appropriate for the entire family, this book demonstrates how powerful the bond can be between real bear that inspired A. A. Milne's Winnie the Pooh and Starring Michael Fassbender, this film tells the story of the king and queen of the world. It is a true story of the struggle of the two main characters in the story. The book explores human emotion and society from the perspective of a teenage boy. It will be discussed on Monday, Dec. 21 at 7:30 PM.

Young Adult Fiction: "The Catcher in the Rye" by J.D. Salinger. This book explores human emotion and society from the perspective of a teenage boy. It will be discussed on Monday, Dec. 21 at 7:30 PM.

Middle School Graphic Novel Book Club

Thursday, Dec. 17 • 4:00 PM

Middle schoolers, do you love reading graphic novels and comics? Join our monthly club! This month, we'll discuss "The Winter Challenge" by Robb. The first book is "The Catcher in the Rye" by J.D. Salinger. This book explores human emotion and society from the perspective of a teenage boy. It will be discussed on Monday, Dec. 21 at 7:30 PM.

Interactive Storytime With Michelle

Join Michelle for a silly, funny song-and-dance-filled storytime! Hear your favorite songs and stories in this interactive storytime for all ages.

Paws for Tales

Wednesday, Dec. 23 • 4:00 PM

Do you have a reluctant reader or a reader that needs some extra practice? Sign them up to have their own online read-aloud session with a therapy dog.

What Does Winter Solstice Mean for You?

Monday, Dec. 21 • 7:30 PM

Learn about the science of the winter solstice, the longest night of the year. Explore, learn and connect at our virtual programs!