

Author Talk With Dick Evans and Kathy Chin Leong
Thursday, January 14 at 6:00 PM

Dear Community,

Did you know that San Francisco's Chinatown is the oldest Chinatown in the United States? From the iconic sights and notable sounds to the delicious tastes only found within, San Francisco's Chinatown has a rich history dating back to the 1850s.

Join us on Thursday, Jan. 14 at 6:00 PM as we invite photographer Dick Evans and journalist Kathy Chin Leong for a special virtual author event as part of our Between the Lines series. They will discuss their collaborative exploration of San Francisco's Chinatown, highlighting its history, celebrations, and residents with informative stories, interviews, and striking photography.

Come learn about a historic neighborhood and vibrant culture that makes San Francisco home to one of the best Chinatowns in the world. Read our blog to find out more information, explore related titles, or to register in advance for the event.

Community Picks

Our Community Picks' titles are available digitally through online resources or in print through Curbside Services.

Children's Fiction: All Around Us by Xelena González

Finding circles everywhere, a grandfather and his granddaughter meditate on the cycles of life and nature. This picture book includes gorgeous artwork from illustrator Adriana Garcia and a beautiful story by journalist, librarian and storyteller Xelena González.

Kelly, East Palo Alto Library

Young Adult Fiction: The Beast Player by Nahoko Uehashi

Elin, the daughter of a talented beast doctor, is alone and far from home after a series of events that led to her mother being sentenced to death. Elin finds that she can develop special relationships with magical beasts. When her skill is discovered, she is thrust into the middle of a political power struggle. Translated from Japanese and a Printz Honor Book in 2020. Available on OverDrive.

Julie, Half Moon Bay Library

Adult Fiction: The Swan Thieves by Elizabeth Kostova

A solitary psychiatrist takes on a patient who has attacked a painting in the National Gallery of Art and embarks on a life-changing journey to unravel the cause. Kostova's beautifully written and absorbing novel explores impressionism, love, obsession and the power of art.

Laurie, San Carlos Library Volunteer

Children's Fiction: So B. It by Sarah Weeks

This title was one of my favorite juvenile fiction pieces as a middle schooler. The story follows 12-year-old Heidi as she sets out to discover the truth about her family and background. It's a touching coming-of-age story that allows young readers to learn about untraditional families and sympathize with the pre-adolescent struggles of Heidi. Available on OverDrive.

Alejandra, Pacifica Libraries

Streaming: The Secret of Kells

This not-quite-historically-accurate tale of one of the most famous illuminated manuscripts of Ireland's Middle Ages is told through beautifully stylized animation inspired by the Book of Kells. This is a story full of magic and the strength of artistic spirit in the face of danger and discouragement. Heads up, it contains some depictions of violence. Available on Kanopy.
