

BPL BINGO

Become a Champion of Reading this summer! As soon as you print this Bingo Card, make sure that you submit your contact information at bpl.org/bingo so we know that you're participating. Then fill in this Bingo Card with what you read, did, or discovered between Monday, July 1, 2019, and Sunday, September 1, 2019. Drop your completed card off at any BPL location or send a picture of the card to bingo@bpl.org by Saturday, September 7. All are welcome to participate, but only Boston Public Library cardholders (including eCards) ages 18 and up are eligible to win a prize. WHAT DO I READ? Ask your neighborhood librarians for book recommendations (and complete a square at the same time). BPL librarians have also created booklists for different squares, found at bpl.org/bingo. And you can try out Shelf-Service via bpl.org/shelf-service—answer a few questions and our Reader Services team will create a list of book recommendations just for you.

HOW DO I READ IT? In addition to paper books and books on CD, BPL offers materials for digital reading in a variety of formats, such as eBooks, eAudiobooks, and digital magazines and newspapers. You can learn how to access these materials by asking a librarian or visiting bpl.org/stream-and-download.

WHERE DO I GO? If you want to find out about upcoming programs at your library, you can visit the library's events page at bpl.org/events. BPL also offers a number of free and discounted museum passes that you can reserve at bpl.org/museum-passes. Free Fun Fridays is another good way to find museums and activities in the summer—check out their schedule at highlandstreet.org/programs/free-fun-fridays-2019
