Programme for 15 August 2020

9.00am	Expo Room opens
9.20am	Expo Welcome
9.30am	Online International Webinar: Myko Clelland: Discovering British & Irish Ancestors with Findmypast . How do you get the best out of FindmyPast? Hear from their resident genealogist and learn the tips, tricks and techniques to aid your research. Find out about their exclusive record collections which will get you further in your family history.
10.30am	Online Fiona Brooker: Story to Book . When we're gone our stories could disappear. Learn tips and tricks on recording your stories or your ancestors' stories, preserving your photos and memories and how to put them together for publication.
11.30am	Online Valerie Anderson: Family Search for Beginners . How to use Family Search and how the local Family History Centre can help with your genealogy researching.
12.30pm	Online International Webinar: Curt Witcher: Passenger & Immigration Research . This lecture challenges the student of genealogy to view an ancestor's travel to this continent as a three-step process -- leaving, arriving, and settling down. Sample documents are viewed and suggestions on how to access immigration related data.
1.30pm	Online Michelle Patient: Ancestry DNA . Had your DNA tested? Not sure what to do next or what it all means? Michelle will explore some fundamental steps to get the most out of your AncestryDNA results, as well as tips and hints for extracting genealogy evidence to help further your research.
2.30pm	Online Edwina Swingler: Using Maps to Enhance your Research . Is it possible to go on your family history journey and not know about the places your family lived? Maps not only show you what the location was like but what was happening in the surrounding areas.
3.30pm	Online International Webinar: John Grenham: Recent Revolution in Irish Research . Irish research has gone from being one of the weirdest and most difficult in the world to one of the least difficult. The talk outlines the starting point and the changes, with plenty of practical examples.
4.30pm	Expo Close
