

Niuean Language Week Craft

Kahoa

Kahoa is a traditional piece of Niuean culture worn by both males and females during traditional cultural performances. Here is how to make your own Kahoa.

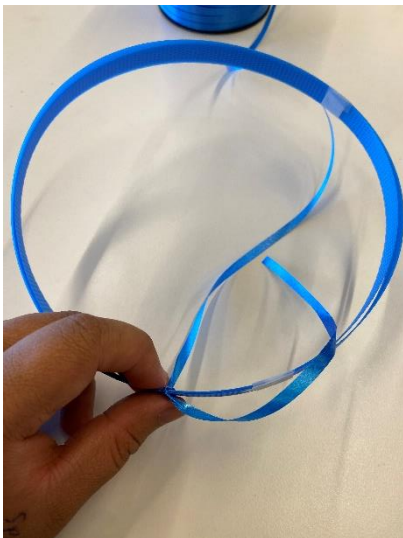

What you need:

Ribbon
Greenery
Head band material
Cello-tape
Scissors
Woven hat

Step 1:

Take the ribbon and cut roughly 1 metre of ribbon and tie to the headband. Then take the greenery and place onto headband. Use the string to wrap around headband. Pull string tight to hold the Kahoa in place.

Step 2:

Repeat this step of greenery and tying together until the headband is finished.

Step 3:

Place the Kahoa on top of the woven hat.

Step 4:

You're all finished yay turn to someone and say Fakalofalahi atu – Hello in Niuean.
