Library Director's Report

Brad's intent was to address how we are positioning ourselves for 2021. The main goal as we come out of the pandemic is to reduce the number of staff in part-time positions and, where possible, move staff to 80% full-time positions with benefits. Federal government CARES act money of over $100,000 helped us to end 2020 at $126,000 under budget. The library was able to move over $88,000 into the capital improvements fund and over $38,000 into cash reserves.

Friends and Foundation Director's Report

• Craig Penzler reported that (in accordance with the traditional practice) there was no meeting in December. Craig did share highlights from Kathleen's year-end recap of operations. Friends and Foundation disbursed $100,000 in an unrestricted block grant to the library. This is in addition to the $42,000 unrestricted grant awarded in March of 2020. End-of-year fundraising was quite successful: $132,000 was received, including $71,000 of New Chapter Society gifts. Craig noted this seems like a record, and the group is gaining strength. $2,000 in funds was raised from the DCCF Giving for Good campaign. The money will enable the library to buy paperback books to give to children at library outreach events. The date of the big annual fundraiser is approaching, so preparations are in process, organizing committees, asking for basket donors, and signing up vendor sponsorships. Kathleen noted that the end-of-year financials will be available in coming weeks and will be reported next month.

Ongoing Business

• 2020 Budget review

Brad called the board members' attention to how we ended the year. We received $109,000 of CARES Act revenue, which helped balance out traditional funding sources that came in low in 2020: e.g. lost & overdue fees (overdue fees are no longer charged), interest income, coffee shop rent. Some of the CARES money was a direct passthrough for the purchase of digital equity laptops & hotspots, PPE and other Covid-related items. The annual utilities expense line was unusually low: lower occupancy made a big difference. In December, the utilities expenditure went up because of a prepayment for future bills. Adding funds to the capital improvements fund was helpful as we plan to undertake building improvements in 2021.

New Business

• Annual Organizational Calendar

Brad reviewed with the board the main agenda items that need to be addressed at each monthly board meeting. Brad suggested that we may want to reschedule the strategic plan review which is currently slated for September. No additional revisions to the calendar were suggested.

• 2021 Budget Revision

Through our budget process, Brad works with the budget committee to build a line-item budget. The committee then brings the proposed budget to the full board for approval. Historically, the library has maintained the line item allocations as set in the adopted budget, but then over- or under-spends amounts in accordance with need. However, this year, it seemed appropriate to reallocate funds at the beginning of the year to adjust for currently-known needs: 1) increase funds in benefits line item to provide flexibility in case of a repeat of last year's unusual increase in health insurance costs 2) increase funds in benefits line to support goal of moving more staff to 80% full-time positions with benefits 3) zeroing out allocation for programming line item so that full programming expense would funded by private funds.

Proposed changes:

Salary: $2,925,000 decreased to $2,865,000 Programming: $20,000 decreased to $0 Benefits: $380,000 increased to $460,000

All programming funding will be funded by the Friends and Foundation. They are regularly granting more than sufficient funds to cover programming costs and the library also has a significant reserve of their grant funding in hand that could cover additional years if there is a downturn in their revenues.

Brad asked if the board wanted to weigh in and vote on any changes in line item allocations. Sarah asked if there would be any restrictions on the type of programming the library could offer if all funding is from private sources. Brad responded that since the Friends and Foundation awards funds in an unrestricted block grant that this would not present any issues for programming content. Brad also noted that the $20,000 in the budget line vastly understates the amount of funds the library spends on programs, and that accounting for programs would be simpler if we only had to track one fund instead of two.

Mayor Brad Finkeldei logged in at 4:50

Adjournment

There being no other business, the meeting adjourned at 4:51pm

The next regular Board meeting will be held Monday, February 15, 2021 via Zoom

Respectfully submitted, Tricia Karlin

Library Director's Report for February 2021

I am very happy to report that the library has been selected to advance to the second phase of our Laura Bush 21st Century Librarian Program grant application to fund our diversity internship program. This grant is funded by the Institute of Museum and Library Services. One of the grant reviewers remarked that our proposal was a "unique and needed niche not seen previously." Kathleen Morgan, our Diversity Coordinator Frankie Haynes, and Board Member Sarah Goodwin Thiel, and I will be working with our partner institutions to further develop and submit our proposal. Having federal funding for this initiative would be transformative for LPL and potentially libraries like ours across the country.

Another exciting project in the works is a partnership with the KU School of Architecture to design the concept for a new LPL outreach vehicle. Professor Nils Gore and his students have built some innovative vehicles in the past including the KU MoCOLAB. We are excited to work with Nils and his students on developing a vehicle that will allow us to get out into the community to share our collections and connect with people that might not otherwise visit the library. Very excited to report back about how this project develops.

Also this month, we have reactivated our Library Visioning Event committee to put the final touches on our rescheduled event for March 31. I am very excited to have this day long session to imagine our new future as we emerge on the other side of this global pandemic. It will certainly be a different experience than meeting in person, but I believe we can pull off a great event within a virtual environment.

And finally, since my January report, we've seen some great people leave for new adventures. Our Youth Services Outreach Specialist Vanessa Reynaga has returned to California to be closer to her family. Our Community Resource Specialist Kate Gramlich has taken a job with Topeka Public Schools. As mentioned in the departmental reports, we are currently searching for their replacements. I imagine we will have our new people selected by my next report.

Respectfully submitted by Brad Allen, February 12, 2021

Monthly Departmental Reports February 2021

Accounts: Accounts continues normal operations at the desk, phone room, curbside, and home delivery. We are assisting with the DVD weeding project, helping to pull duplicate DVDs and de-processing them. We've been assisting with the preparation of inter-library loan blue bands. We also continue to help with the monthly On Search list.

Cataloging & Collection Development: Yilan from Info Services has begun training in cataloging, and she will be assisting 9 hours a week with cataloging and processing adult non-fiction. The AV tools collection will be expanding with the addition of a scanner, web cam, and microphone, and starting February 15th, patrons will have digital access to the Washington Post in the library and off site.

Department of Community Partnerships (DCP):

Kristin is working with Polli on Read Across Lawrence 2022 and developing programming in the fall of 2021 surrounding all things bookish. We're also working on developing Summer Reading programming around the theme Tails and Tales. We continue to work with Nils Gore and the KU Architecture students on the planning and development of an outreach vehicle. We will do a building tour with them on Monday the 15th so they can see all we have to offer patrons and how they might translate those services into an outreach vehicle.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Collaborating with Employee Engagement Coordinator to update hiring/recruitment policies and procedures, as we actively recruit for a couple of positions. Together, we also updated the staff training website, as well as set dates for 4 mandatory core trainings. Meeting with other DEI and library professionals to discuss their practices/exchange ideas. Will soon begin planning for our DEI basics training, which is taking place in late April.

Employee Engagement: Several collaborative projects are underway to create new processes for hiring, training, internal communication, and onboarding to ensure employees feel well informed. We are also currently interviewing for the Youth Services Outreach Assistant III position and accepting applications for our Community

Resource Specialist position.

Facilities: Thrilled to announce the promotion of our long time Lead Maintenance, Phillip Howard, to the Maintenance & Custodial Coordinator! Phillip will take over supervision of the Library's Custodians and maintain a high standard of cleanliness in the facility. He will also continue to work on the never ending maintenance of our Library to keep it looking fresh for years to come.

Information Services: The Info Services team regretfully bid farewell to our colleague, Kate Gramlich, who is moving on from LPL to new opportunities. Kate's vacated Community Resource Specialist position has been posted; the opening will close February 14th. Melissa wrapped up her role as co-lead of the Jobs & Employment workgroup as part of the Douglas County Community Health Plan; the completed plan was presented to and approved by the Human Services Coalition and will now move into the implementation phase. We have welcomed two new peer support fellows--Matt and Lance--who will be embedded at the library as part of the partnership with Douglas County, Bert Nash, and the KU Med Center. Matt and Lance are also currently providing peer support to the residents at the Camp Woody winter tent site. We continue to connect community members with free Lifeline internet as part of our CARES Act-funded digital equity initiative.

Marketing: Affectionately named the Jumbotron, we now have a new digital information kiosk in the Self Check lobby. This will be used to promote select library events, collections, services, and resources as well as a first floor map. My Hawklink intern Kevin Mboma will be working in the computer lab 1 hour/week on Fridays (starting Friday) and is currently taking the Ryan Dowd training on homelessness. We have working meetings every Friday from 2-3 via zoom. The first month of my department deep dive with Readers' Services has yielded a refreshed department logo and trial run of branded notes sheets that include contact info, what they do, and space to write down call numbers. We'll work out any kinks and get official note pads ordered for their service desk next. February's focus is on Library Friends & Foundation and we're meeting this week. Formed an Art Team with Traci Bunkers (Materials Handling) and Angela Longhurst (Accounts) in preparation for bringing back 2D art exhibits in the Self Check Lobby with adaptations to meet COVID protocol. Angela will have an administrative role to help me with incoming applications and bookings, and Traci will help with install and social media. I will make a public announcement and call for submissions on April 1. The Spring issue of the LPL Reader is done and in its early phase of production — should arrive on desks Feb 25. This issue highlights Information Services (IS), our Annual Report, and the Wurfy Collection. Thanks to Dan Coleman (Collection Librarian) and Melissa Fisher Isaacs (IS Coordinator) for their editorial contributions. Please share copies of the magazine widely — this issue lays out the breadth of our IS team's mission and it's pretty remarkable what they can do. I'm currently preparing to announce the new Washington Post digital subscription and getting the Seed Library brochure updated and printed. Meetings and teams I'm involved in beyond department (DCP) and leadership (BLT) include: Outreach, Programming Club, What's Next Team, and the new Coordinator Peer Group. I'm working with our new EEC Erica Segraves one-on-one to align our elusive internal and external communications with the goal of streamlining announcements and information sharing, eliminating overlap, and creating simple guidelines for which channels work best for us as a whole. Currently inspired by this. I am continuing to help out in the Computer Lab 2 hours/week and have a 2-hour front door shift as well.

updated to include Readers' Services mission and library identity

Materials Handling: Not too much to say on the Materials Handling front. With our added responsibilities in the media room and an uptick in physical circulation, we've been keeping busy so we're fine tuning our workflows and schedule. Traci's excited to start on the library's art committee along with Heather and Angela L.. And Cale gets a special thanks for all his ILL work covering for a sick coworker.

Monthly Departmental Reports February 2021

Public Technology Services: Happy to announce that two new staff were hired to assist at the computer lab desk, and have already started working at the library: Nicole L. and Andrew M. Andrew also works for the library as a substitute assistant in Materials Handling. The department staff continues to work on transitioning from a joint internal IT- public computer department to an operation that focuses on public services. Having more staff on board is a key piece to effecting the full transition.

Youth Services: YS is back in full swing of virtual programs after the holiday break. We are working on finalizing plans for the picture book room renovation with Gould Evans and gearing up for Summer Reading. We have an exciting program coming up with Kwame Alexander and the Kids Action Club led by Jenny Cook. Kid President of LPL, Sofia, has raised over $5000 with her clubmates that will go to the Lawrence Community Shelter. At the program on 2/18, Kwame will talk about lifting people up with his writing and will be followed by some inspiring Lawrence community leaders and the winners of the Kids Action Club raffle. We continue to hear positive feedback from the community about our book bundles and book box subscriptions. Here's what one patron had to say about the book box for this month: "My kids and teen were literally jumping up and down with excitement when school ended and they had surprise book boxes to open. The books are a hit! The crafts are a hit! Thanks for finding fun ways to reach out to the kids during this strange time. We appreciate it! :)"

Friends & Foundation Director's Report – February 12, 2021

Children Picture Book Room Refresh. Our project to refresh the picture book room in the Youth Services department is revving up. Thanks to a grant from Don Marquis, we are adding new shelving to the perimeter of the room, additional sound baffling, and new carpeting and furniture. We hope to have it ready for a dedication by this summer.

PPP Loan. The Friends & Foundation board voted to move forward with an application for a second PPP loan. With our large book sale future still uncertain (we're hoping we can have one in the summer) the board agreed that it makes sense to apply. If approved, it will provide funding 2.5 months of staff salaries.

After Hours Fundraiser. The Friends & Foundation work this month has centered on planning and organizing the March 4th virtual version of After Hours at the Library. The evening will consist of three parts: (1) a Literary Cocktail Class with Tyson Buhler; (2) a special appeal to raise funds for eBooks and other digital resources; and (3) drawings for 20 themed baskets. Online registration and basket ticket sales officially open February 20th. Please mark your calendar and be sure to join us!

Turning our annual fundraising party into a virtual soiree has been a great adventure. Thankfully we have lots of smart people helping out who will help get us there. Here are a few highlights:

- We're inches from our $25K sponsorship goal! Our current total is $24,300 and I'm confident we will close the gap.
- I am delighted to report that Leni Salkind has pledged a $10,000 matching gift for the digital library special appeal. Our goal is to meet her matching challenge at the party.
- The invitation postcard is done. It is in the mail and should land in your mailboxes the week of Feb 14th.
- We have created a Tech Team, consisting of volunteers and library staff, that is creating a logistical plan for the evening. In addition, we have formed a writers group to create a script. Next week Brandon Eisman and I will meet with Kathleen Sebelius to make sure she is up for the nutty things we have planned!
- The Cocktail Party in a Box is coming together. Our Master Bartender, Tyson Buhler, has created a recipe for his own twist on the "Tequila Mockingbird". Grandstand is donating 100 cocktail shakers. They will be etched with the Friends & Foundation logo for our sponsors.
- Rachel Rademacher and Margie Coggins continue to work on baskets. They range from a "Pizza Crawl" with multiple pizza gift cards to the "007 Starter Kit" from the MPBC book club (see photo). It provides everything you need for the perfect martini -- including a black bow tie.

- Prosecution

Internet Safety Policy

In compliance with CIPA and the Kansas Children's Internet Protection Act, the Library implements and enforces technology protection measures in an effort to ensure that no minor has access to visual depictions that are child pornography, harmful to minors, or obscene, and to ensure that no person has access to visual depictions that are child pornography or obscene while using a public access computer.

A Library employee may disable a technology protection measure if

- Requested to do so by a library patron who is not a minor, and
- The requested access is for legitimate research or other lawful purpose

Library staff monitor usage of the online computer network through Internet filtering software, observations of Library staff and other users, and other means.

Patrons who are prevented from accessing web sites which they believe should not be blocked may request they be unblocked via the online form available through the Library's Internet filtering software. Staff will examine the site and determine whether it should be unblocked.

Patrons who encounter web sites which they believe should be blocked, but which are not, may submit a request in writing to the Library Director. Requests must include the URL of the site.

Concerns about enforcement of this policy or observed patron behavior which violate this policy will also be submitted in writing to the Library Director, providing as much detail as possible.

The library will inform patrons of the provisions of this policy by making the policy available on the library's website.
