Young Writer's Challenge

Every student in San Ramon and Danville is a writer, so share your talent! This is a creative writing challenge for elementary school students. Pick up an entry form and write about how you dealt with a situation in which you were made to feel different. Some students' essays will be read during the author talk on March 27.

Enter a weekly drawing for a copy of A Normal Pig, beginning Saturday, February 27.

For special accommodations, please contact the library with 72 hours notice.
