“I’m just grateful that everyone I know is well...”

"It really hasn't changed my life, I'm 85 years old. It's made me sad...lonely at times, yes, but not unbearably. My check comes in from the government every month, aside from not seeing my family, I'm one of the lucky ones. I'm just grateful that everyone I know is well; no one's in the hospital. I'm doing alright."
