

Date Submitted: 04/23/2020

Author: Anonymous

“ It has been almost 6 weeks since her first granddaughter was born ; and the two have yet to meet ”

“Where do I begin? My daughter was born (March 13th) on pretty much the day our nation wide quarantine went into effect. Her grandmother lives in an old age home. It has been almost 6 weeks since her first granddaughter was born ; and the two have yet to meet =..( . My mothers old age home - like some many old age homes across the country- has been on lock down ever since. No visitors.”