

Date Submitted: 6/1/2020

Author: Harris Chow, under 12 years old

“I feel sad that the coronavirus has killed many people and also infected others. I feel disappointed as well because I did not get to go visit my family and friends at their houses. But I feel good that I can spend more time with my parents at home, playing board games and going for hikes and gardening and going for bike rides.”

