

Date Submitted: 6/26/2020

Author: Aryan Dadgar, Under 12 years-old

“It has affected my life by forcing me to quarantine myself from the rest of the world. I can only come out in order to go to the store and do things that are either in the same or close category. It has also affected my life by forcing me to take outbreak safety precautions.”