Dream Clouds

Martin Luther King, Jr. inspired others to dream of a better world and work towards making their dreams a reality. What dreams do you have for yourself, for your community, for your country, and for the world? How can you make the world a better place? Print out these templates and fill in each cloud with your dreams.

Materials you will need:

- Printer
- Paper
- Writing utensils

How to make your dream clouds:

1. Print out the cloud templates or draw your own
2. Respond to the prompts on each cloud
3. Decorate your clouds however you would like
4. Place them somewhere in your home where they will keep you inspired to work towards your dreams

My name is:

and I have a dream!

I have a dream for myself...

I have a dream for my community...

I have a dream for my country...

I have a dream for the world...
