

FULTON COUNTY LIBRARY SYSTEM

books for babies

Books for Babies is an early literacy program for parents with babies ages 0 - 2 years. The program teaches parents the importance of reading to their babies every day.

READS ON THE GO

Free Kids Reading eBooks/Audiobooks

- Picture Books | Board Books | Nonfiction | Comics
- Audiobooks | Read A Longs | Magazines | Movies
- Multiple Languages Available

Download available apps for Android and IOS

For Newly Released books and Library events:
<http://afpls.org/news>

For all kids e-resources, visit:
<http://afpls.org/digitallibrary>

WHY READ TO YOUR BABY?

Promotes language and brain development

Provides an understanding of the world that helps to build empathy

Improves attention, decreases anxiety and behavioral issues

Helps in the future development of writing and math skills

Increases chances of graduation from high school and pursuing a college degree

OTHER RESOURCES

Talk With Me Baby

(from The Georgia Department of Public Health and Department of Education, Emory University's School of Nursing and Department of Pediatrics, the Marcus Autism Center at Children's Healthcare of Atlanta, the Atlanta Speech School's Rollins Center for Language and Literacy, and Get Georgia Reading.)

Babies Need Words Every Day

(from Association for Library Service to Children)

/FulcoLibrary

www.afpls.org

Citizens needing reasonable accommodations due to disability, including communications in an alternate format, please contact your Fulton County Library System location, in-person, or by telephone (TTY 711).