

The Pride of the Family: Black Fatherhood

For the observance and in celebration of Father's Day, this collection of reference materials articulates the cultural and psychosocial contributions of black masculinity and fatherhood, to the black experience. This reference listing provides critical readers, works of from major authors that illustrate historical and iconic literary father figures, as well as psychological literature about black manhood and black male adolescence.

Biographical and clergy memoirs from prominent black men, guidebooks of masculine etiquette and various documentaries and cinematic narratives of fatherhood, and caring for black men, are included. Comparative literature sources about Asian and Black and Afro-Hispanic brotherhoods are also provided.

Resources include call numbers, for patrons to easily inquire and obtain resources. Auburn Avenue Research Library maintains non-circulating policies of its collection; however, patrons are able to utilize materials in-house.
